

THE CIVIL WAR IN MISSOURI

A TRAVELING EXHIBITION
FROM THE

Missouri
History Museum

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE

The Civil War in Missouri Sites 2012

Missouri and its role in the Civil War continue to generate controversy among historians, academics and Civil War enthusiasts. To commemorate the Civil War sesquicentennial--and to explore the complexities of the Civil War in the twenty-fourth state--the Missouri History Museum's has created a traveling exhibit for Missouri.

The Missouri Humanities Council in partnership with the Missouri History Museum are proud to be offering this traveling exhibit to our constituents throughout the State from 2012 - 2015.

There are four sites receiving the exhibit for 2012.

May 5, 2012 through July 1, 2012

Kansas City Public Library
14 W. 10th Street
Kansas City, MO 64105

July 21, 2012 through September 16, 2012

Kirksville Area Chamber of Commerce & Kirksville Arts Center
304 S. Franklin
P.O. Box 251
Kirksville, MO 63501

October 6, 2012 through November 21, 2012

Joplin Museum Complex
504 Schifferdecker
P.O. Box 555
Joplin, MO 64802

December 22, 2012 through February 17, 2013

Katy Depot
Sedalia Chamber of Commerce
600 E. 3rd Street
Sedalia, MO 65301

For more details about The Civil War in Missouri traveling exhibit tour and how you can be involved, contact Anna Marie Wingron, at the Missouri Humanities Council at 314.781.9660 or email: annamarie@mohumanities.org.

For more information about the Missouri Humanities Council visit the website: www.mohumanities.org and the Missouri History Museum visit the website: www.mohistory.org

